ASL SEMANTICS: Precision of Expression in ASL

Semantics is defined as the study of meanings expressed by the elements of a language or a combination of the elements. A concept expressed in an ASL sign often cannot be conveyed by a single all-purpose English word. Likewise, English words and phrases may have variations in meaning, which require translations using different ASL signs. This workshop helps the student advance skills in translating the languages of ASL and English.

Sunday, January 22, 2012 @ 7 pm – 8:30 pm

A NIGHT of Improv with Trix: WHOSE ASL IS IT?" You've heard of the TV Show "Whose line is it anyway?" right? Now, it's coming to a stage near you, only this time it's in ASL! With no practice, no preparation, using different ideas from the audience, and using people from audience, Trix will captivate you with her impromptu mode of "ASL-libing" and a night of hearty laughter!

Monday, January 23, 2012 @ 5:30 pm – 9:30 pm

Close-Up Views: Classifiers Under the Microscope

Get a close-up 3-D view of life under the microscope with classifiers. Clearly translate ideas from English to ASL with real objects and the human body as a focus of description. Zoom in on learning to use classifiers effectively.

Tuesday January 24, 2012 @ 5:30 pm – 9:30 pm

English Idioms: PSST...How Do You Interpret That?

Fire up your creativity and learn how to interpret idioms in American Sign Language! This workshop will guide participants in expressing idiomatic concepts across languages. Idioms breathe life into language. Come and join us as we master idioms!

My workshops benefit participants at all levels. Countless advanced interpreters have let me know that they enjoyed learning updated/new signs that they haven't seen before, such as regional accents. They also loved it when I explained how to sign messages into ASL, rather than just signing in English word by word. Interpreters appreciate that my workshops are excellent for review as well as for discovering new things that apply within the professional work environment. Students also mentioned that my workshops helped them to understand how to approach their own projects, research, and practice more effectively.

Participants, fans, and friends have asked questions like these: What's it like to travel so much? Which airline experience was the most frustrating? How many states have you been to? What are your favorite movies/restaurants/hotels? I will do my best to share my experiences in this blog. Enjoy reading my blog! <http://trixbruceshow.blogspot.com/>
