ME?!? ...What's Next?!?!

Through my journey, things change, I change,
now I am wondering...

"What's Next?" ~ Trix

Dear Trix,

Woohoo!

One of the best and most challenging things about having myself getting involved with you all - landed on this planet and constantly why I am doing this, what is that, why does this happen, how does this work. I LOVE IT!

It seems my answers to celebrate for the Deaf Communities around America. To decorate with the arts of sign language - seeing everyone with the "flying-hands" made my business roaring. It made senses because of YOU! This is the best gift ever of all.

Learning is discovering that something is possible.

Working on my next new projects: DVDs, stories, and visiting places consumed my business and personal times - I have enjoyed life a lot more by thinking, observing, involving, and saying yes than saying no.

An organization asked me to visit a school, I was honored and allowed to give myself time interacting with kids during classrooms. Kids enjoyed bragging their accomplishments of their work - that made my day!

Learning kids' questions & answers after the shows made me re-thinking what they are looking for - - they wanted to see themselves if they can do it just like me. YES! The "can-do-it" attitude is a smart smooth move for everyone to show our Deaf role model - we all can do it! You ROCK!

"I want to see Trix tell her stories from a stage in one of the bid tents in Jonesborough Tennessee at the National Storytelling Festival, I know she has the talent, and the ability to narrate. I see Trix developing her storytelling repertoire becoming a nationally known master storyteller."

David H. Claunch
Jonesborough, Tennessee

"I want to tell you that in 25 years of interpreting, your workshop was by far the best I have ever attended. I know I have made improvements based on things I learned from you.

Thank you so much!!! "

Tricia Olson,
Jacksonville, Florida

My passion is to make it succeed and make it again.

Through the year of 2007:

- 7 keynote presentations
- 48 performance shows
- 33 workshops
- 2 "mentor" days

"Wow, what a great year! Full of non-ending adventures when there's so much else to do. Off on a big adventure, having more experiences, with my wild mind, this give me a gigantic opportunity to explore more, more, and more to do! My thoughts, plans, hopes, anxieties, and intimidating went ups and downs like a fun wave!

Getting compliments, comments from friends and fans has made me realize how much this work so important for everyone to SEE. What a breathtakingly beautiful bucket of emails, letters, cards, photos, and friends pour all over me - a special splash. I would love to read your ideas of what I can do for you and your organization.

"Trix always says thank you, meeting people, being positive, going to Starbucks. Trix's personal goals are to cherish the friendship, to find time devoting to her fans, to enjoy having volunteers as crews. In the long run, I see Trix being truly happy in everything she does and succeed her acting career including Hollywood moments." Anonymous, Herndon, Virginia

My Favorite Quote this year: " I'm never as good as when you're there." --Almost Famous

Thinking of a puzzle to put this together, without you, none of the pieces fit. Thank you all for the huge support you have given to make these events successful! More journals and news to come in another few months!

Oh dear, what's next!?!

Hugs, Trix
