September 2010

Event Title

Time has flown! September is here! My workshops and shows were very successful through the summer ; meeting participants in a gregarious way! It was amazing seeing participants hungry to learn MORE and MORE.

There is a long list of things that I have always wanted to do - a full plate! Repolishing my presentations, booking plans in different towns, producing another DVD, reviewing RID paperwork for CEUs, and several ideas. My website will be updated and will be released soon.

Trix

NEXT APPEARANCE:

September 17-19, 2010
 Leterville, Missouri
 (Print Flyer)

This organization has invited Trix and other comedians to share her ASL comedy storytelling along with her friends. She is honored to part of this special largest Deaf comedyfest in the Midwest! Let's fingerspelling for fun: Humanitascomediacongregatium !

She is planning to share new true storytelling much like The Hearing World Around Me. Drawing on her background in American Sign Language (ASL) Linguistics and a life of travel and adventure, Trix excels in hilarious true-to-life storytelling and impromptu, interactive ASL artistry. Diverse interests from business to stage performance led Trix to entrepreneurial success as an instructional presenter and sought-after entertainer (trixbruce.com). Trix is also an approved sponsor for the RID Certificate Maintenance Program. Enthusiastic audiences all across America celebrate Trix Bruce!

English Equivalent

- Old hat
- Bored with it
- too good at it
- too much experience
- want to do something different for now
- enough of that
- burned out
- Accomplished
- A veteran at something
- To know all about it
- Out-of-date
- Not new
- Too familiar
- Uninteresting
- Piece of Cake
- Really easy
- Been there done that
- It's a breeze

Examples:

It was a piece of cake doing a presentation on the stage; however performing for TV filming made me nervous because there is a big difference between the stage and film.

A professional baseball player is accomplished after playing for many years; he decided to try golf, but he wasn't as good at it!

Sammie had been making lovely scarves, now she wanted to do something different such as drawing, typing, scribbling, etc.

Touchdowns were a breeze for Bart. He loves making TDs! Bart accomplished playing football touchdowns and still loves it.

My dad is an expert at preparing meals for the whole family during the holidays.

Our DVD player broke down, you wouldn't believe this - Bart fixed it in a snap.

Coming to Your Town? "Count Heads"

An interpreter asked me to come and present a workshop in their town. I'd be more than happy to come and present. I would like to "count heads" to see if I'll likely get enough participants to cover my traveling expenses. Would you be interested in attending one of my workshops in their town? If this interests you, please reply to my email with your choice of dates and workshop.

- Fargo, North Dakota
- Pensacola, Florida
- Boston, Massachusetts
- Virginia Beach, Virginia
- Atlanta, Georgia

FAN EMAIL

"I enjoyed your workshop! You are a terrific presenter! You are such an excellent teacher in so many ways--this week I have been remembering how you emphasized communicating the information in a visually clear manner. I felt like you were looking over my shoulder sometimes--making sure the picture was really complete!!

You are the best--I admire your talent and skills!

Thanks again!"

Marie

"You are a fabulous presenter, I have gleaned so much from the information you shared and will continue to do so with the dvd's I have.

I couldn't help letting my other interpreter friends know how much I enjoyed your workshops. : )

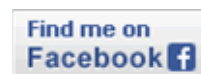

I wish all the very best for you and so look forward to future workshops of yours or just getting to know you better.'
Delia (from California)
