

CAMPUS DISABILITY ADVOCATES

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my greatest pleasure to recommend Trix Bruce as a performer for any of your events.

I am the president of a student organization at the University of Tennessee called Campus Disability Advocates. Every year we host a week of disability-themed programming. In the past, we have had events like educational forums, film screenings, and art shows about disability. In 2013, we invited Trix Bruce to give her performance "The Hearing World Around Me," which is a performance directed to a general audience about Trix's life.

The room for her performance was completely packed. There were people who had showed up an hour before the show started just to make sure they had a seat, which demonstrates Trix's popularity and appeal. Once the show began, she immediately began to captivate the audience with her life story.

Her show included many hilariously performed stories and beautifully expressed poems about what it is like to live as a Deaf person in a hearing world. The audience oscillated between a state of emotional entrancement and fits of uncontrollable laughter throughout the whole night.

The attendance at Trix's event was the highest our student organization has ever had. Countless people came up to us afterward and thanked us for bringing a performer as engaging and entertaining as Trix. I know for a fact that she has opened the hearts and minds of everyone who attended, including me. I cannot wait to cross paths with Trix and her art again.

Best,
Lindsay Lee
University of Tennessee Campus Disability Advocates President