

Educational Interpreting: How Can I Improve My Scores? Presented by Trix Bruce

Saturday, March 31, 2018 - 8am-5pm
at Interpretek, 428 Phoenix Drive, Rome, New York 13440

Boost your interpreting skills, increase your confidence, and prepare for your performance exams! You'll find out exactly what 'qualified' means according to regional certifications. This presentation will provide information about the EIPA certification process and build your knowledge of ASL linguistics. Experience hands-on practice opportunities on ASL markers, personification, classifiers, and educational terminology. This workshop will be presented in ASL.

About the presenter: Patricia 'Trix' Bruce hails from Seattle, Washington and is known nationwide as both a workshop presenter and an American Sign Language performer. Trix's work has been warmly received everywhere, from local community centers to state, regional, and national conferences, to Deaf Way II, interpreter conventions, and more. Wildly popular as a teacher of ASL storytelling and interpretation, Trix impresses audiences of all skill levels, from novices to fluent experts. Trix has been profoundly deaf since the age of six months and experienced oral, mainstreaming, deaf, and online education. She began her career in the performing arts in 1980 and after completing her college program, became involved with interpreter training. Her main area of study is ASL linguistics with an emphasis on ASL performance. Learn more about Trix at www.trixbruce.com.
